But, if the work goes on, it will simply re anit in sinking a valu amount of money in a Ocality far out of the reach of commerce, to the deprivation of the state at large and of the northwest in general of improvements necessary for their growth, development and commercial prosperity. It would be better for Gregon if the proposed barbor of refuge, for which there is really no need anywhere expent it he located where it may become an linry to internal as well as external trade, were located at Trinidad or so soint on the coast of California, than at a point in Oregon where it can be of no real use, while the great expenditure for it is charged up against the state.

THE CANADA PACIFIC.

Our neighbors of British Columbia are all agog about their railroad. It is a gigantic many interruptions; yet they are glad to have a beginning made, dimly remembering, rom very ancient times that the beginning is half the whole work. Recently there has parlisment on the results and the policy pursued by the present administration and its predecessor in reference to its construction.
